Dream Machine Festival SOLD OUT

After a long week of anticipation since its announcement, from travel starved patrons, Dream Machine Festival in The Whitsundays has sold out in under 30 minutes!

Dream Machine is a 5 day, 4 night destination event set in The Whitsundays, the Heart of the Great Barrier Reef, this October.

Organisers have carefully curated a deluxe itinerary which involves Island hopping magical Daydream Island, Paradise Cove and a surprise tropical location, with all ferry transfers included. Strolling the coral beaches or getting lost on rainforest walks, going kayaking, paddle boarding or sitting poolside and drinking cocktails, the options are endless on this tropical musical getaway!

Leading the bill are Australia's captains of electronica Flight Facilities and Hayden James alongside the queen of tropical disco CC:DISCO!. House twins Cosmo's Midnight, bass lord Touch Sensitive as well as the industry smashing The Jungle Giants & Confidence Man in DJ modes.

Today's public ticket sales were scheduled for release at midday and sales were exhausted by half past. It was a scramble of first in best dressed with many missing out on the major and final release! Since last week's line-up announcement, keen holiday-goers were given the opportunity to subscribe for Monday's pre-sale tickets which were likewise snapped up within minutes of release. An enormous amount of interest was shown for the presale exclusive offer with more than 10,000 subscriptions.

With international borders closed there has been no better opportunity to showcase all the Whitsunday Islands have to offer to the predominantly Sydney, Melbourne, and Perth audiences – most of whom this will be their first visit.

Tourism Whitsundays CEO Tash Wheeler said, "The Whitsundays really is the Heart of Events with another world-class event added to this year's calendar. A sold out event shows just how excited people are to get back to their music festivals and begin celebrating once again."

"Tying in a great line up with an idyllic location such as The Whitsundays is the perfect combination for a music event. We look forward to having Dream Machine right here in the Heart of the Great Barrier Reef for their inaugural festival."

Dream Machine Music Festival takes place on 6 - 10 of October 2021.
